

Constitution and Bylaws of the Kentucky Baptist Convention

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

¶ 1 This Body shall be called the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE II

¶ 1 The Body was created by churches, for churches, to help churches reach Kentucky and the world for Christ.

ARTICLE III

¶ 1 This Body shall meet annually according to adjournment, but in case of emergency the President may call a special session with the advice and consent of the Mission Board, or two-thirds of the members of the Board present and voting may call a special session.

ARTICLE IV

¶ 1 The Body shall consist of messengers who are members of Baptist churches cooperating with the Convention as follows:

- (1) One (1) messenger from each church which: (1) Is in friendly cooperation with the Convention and sympathetic with its purposes and work. Churches in cooperation with the Convention are understood by the Convention to be local congregations of scripturally-baptized believers in general agreement with any of the historic Baptist confessions of faith (By way of example, churches which act to affirm, approve or endorse homosexual behavior would be deemed not to be in cooperation with the Convention.) And, (2) Has been a bona fide contributor through the Cooperative Program during the fiscal year preceding.
- (2) One (1) additional messenger from each such church for every two hundred [and] fifty (250) resident members; or for each $250.00 contributed through the Cooperative Program during the fiscal year preceding.
- (3) The messengers shall be appointed and certified by the churches to the Convention, but no church may appoint more than ten (10).
- (4) Ballots shall be issued to each messenger at the time of registration, and only registered messengers present shall be eligible to vote on business matters brought to the Convention.

ARTICLE V

¶ 1 On the occasion of its annual meeting the Body shall elect by ballot, a president, a first and second vice president, a secretary and one assistant secretary. Their duties shall be such as custom imposes upon such officers. They shall hold office until their successors are duly installed at the closing session of the annual meeting of the Body. No president shall be eligible to succeed himself in office. The President and the Vice Presidents and Secretaries of the Convention shall be the officers of the Mission Board of the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

¶ 2 Persons to be nominated as officers of the Kentucky Baptist Convention must be consulted and permission secured before their names are placed in nomination.

ARTICLE VI

¶ 1 The doctrinal guideline for this Body and its work shall be the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted and amended by the Southern Baptist Convention, understanding that any cooperating affiliated church has the right to affirm any of the historic Baptist confessions of faith.

- ¶ 2 This Body has no jurisdiction over the local churches or the District Associations, and shall exercise no authority over them.

ARTICLE VII

- ¶ 1 The Mission Board of this body shall consist of members from each cooperating District Association plus eight at-large members from the geographical regions of the state. The Mission Board membership from the associations shall consist of one member from each cooperating District Association with a resident church membership of five thousand or less, and one more member for each additional five thousand resident church members, as reported in the Convention Annual of the preceding year. Each District Association shall nominate two persons for each membership on the Board of whom one shall be elected. Should any District Association fail to exercise this prerogative, then the Committee on Nominations of the Convention shall make the nomination.
- ¶ 2 The eight at-large members shall be elected from any cooperating affiliated Baptist church. These members shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations of the Convention.
- ¶ 3 Members of the Mission Board shall be at the time of their nomination, and throughout their term of service if elected, members of cooperating affiliated churches as defined in Article IV of this Constitution. Should at any time a Mission Board member's church membership cease to be in a cooperating affiliated church, the Mission Board member will be considered as having resigned from the Board.
- ¶ 4 All members of the Board shall be elected by the Kentucky Baptist Convention for a term of three years, except those who are selected to fill the vacancies. Vacancies result from death, resignation, or moving from the district association. A move within the state of an at-large member does not constitute a need for a change in regional representation. No member shall be eligible for re-election for one year after his term has expired except one who has been elected to fill an unexpired term. Members serving two (2) years and six (6) months shall be considered as serving a full three-year term. Any vacancies on the Mission Board not filled at the annual meeting of the Convention or which occur during the year shall be filled by the Mission Board upon recommendation of the Convention's Committee on Nominations.
- ¶ 5 The retiring President of the Convention shall be an at-large member of the Mission Board for one year immediately following his term of office.
- ¶ 6 The president of the Woman's Missionary Union shall serve as ex-officio member of the Board.
- ¶ 7 Twenty-five percent of the Board's membership shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII

- ¶ 1 The Mission Board shall have charge of the work of this body between its sessions, and shall appoint all officers and agencies that may be required in its work.
- ¶ 2 The Mission Board shall not contravene any Convention action.
- ¶ 3 The Mission Board shall neither create, accept nor release any institution or agency for the Kentucky Baptist Convention, unless so instructed by the Convention. The existence of an emergency in connection with an institution or agency shall be determined by a majority vote of the Mission Board in session, and the Board shall make recommendation to the Convention with reference to the emergency.
- ¶ 4 The Mission Board shall make a report to the annual Convention. At least thirty days prior to this meeting the Board shall publish through the Convention's official print and electronic media its recommendations except in an emergency that may arise thereafter.

ARTICLE IX

- ¶ 1 No person shall be eligible to serve at the same time on more than one Board of Trustees or Directors of any agency or institution in Kentucky fostered and supported by the Kentucky Baptist Convention, except the Mission Board of the Convention, its partnering organizations, and auxiliaries, and shall not be eligible for election or appointment until he has been a member of a Kentucky Baptist church for at least one calendar year prior to nomination or appointment, and shall not be eligible for re-election after serving two full terms until having been out of office at least one full year, except the Kentucky Baptist colleges may have a maximum of eight (8) trustees per college from outside the state; these trustees to be nominated from candidates who are members in good standing of cooperating Baptist churches in their respective states.
- ¶ 2 Members of Boards of agencies and institutions shall be considered as having served a full term if they serve at least to a date six (6) months short of the full term. A full term defined differently in an agency or institution constitution or articles of incorporation shall be the prevailing definition. Vacancies on boards which occur between Kentucky Baptist Convention annual sessions may be filled by the Mission Board as the Convention ad interim upon recommendation of candidates by the Committee on Nominations. These actions shall be ratified at the Convention's next annual session.
- ¶ 3 With the exception of the Executive Director-Treasurer, employees of the Mission Board or any agency or institution of the Convention shall be ineligible to serve as members of the Mission Board or on a Board of Trustees or Directors of any agency or institution fostered and supported by the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE X

- ¶ 1 The President of the Convention and the Executive Director-Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of all committees.

ARTICLE XI

- ¶ 1 This Constitution may be altered or amended (except Article VI) by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present at any annual meeting, one year's notice having been given to the proposed alteration or amendment.

ORGANIZATION of the MISSION BOARD

The Mission Board, according to ARTICLE VII of the Constitution, "Shall have charge of the work of the Kentucky Baptist Convention between its annual sessions and shall appoint all officers and agencies that may be required in its work."

1. The Mission Board shall consist of members to include appropriate representatives from the associations of the state and one (1) at-large member from each of the eight (8) regions of the state, and these shall be elected by messengers to the Kentucky Baptist Convention in regular session, in accord with its adopted plan.
2. Vacancies on the Mission Board are filled by action of the Kentucky Baptist Convention during its annual session. If, at the close of the annual meeting of the convention, vacancies still exist, the Mission Board, on nominations from the Committee on Nominations of the Kentucky Baptist Convention, may fill interim vacancies from the appropriate associations. A Board member who moves from one association to another within the state during the year remains on the Board until his successor is elected or his term expires.

The Committee on Constitution and Bylaws interprets Article VII to mean that one's service on the Mission Board is measured in total time served whether or not the person has held residence in one or more associations. Members are therefore still limited to a single three year term plus an unexpired term as now stated in Article VII (Nov. 13, 1986).

3. The president, both vice presidents, and secretaries of the Kentucky Baptist Convention shall serve as members of the Board.
4. The past president of the Kentucky Baptist Convention shall serve a one-year term as an at-large member of the Board.
5. The president of the Woman's Missionary Union shall serve as ex-officio member of the Board.
6. The officers of the Mission Board shall consist of a chairperson, two vice chairpersons, secretary, and assistant secretary. The president and vice presidents of the Convention shall respectively serve as chairperson, first and second vice chairperson of the Mission Board. The secretary and assistant secretary of the Convention shall serve in like manner.
7. Every member of the Board, except its officers, shall be a member of one standing committee--viz. Agencies and Institutions Committee, Business and Finance Committee, Church Consulting and Revitalization Committee, Evangelism and Church Planting Committee, Missions Mobilization Committee, and Placement Committee. Placement Committee members shall be drawn from the memberships of the other five committees.

The officers of the Board shall be available to serve as consultants or to assist any committee upon assignment by the Board chairperson.

8. The Placement Committee shall prepare nominations as to the committee assignments for presentation at the Board's December meeting. Additional nominations may be made at other Board meetings as needed.
9. Members of the standing committees shall be elected by the Board at its December meeting. Committee replacements for vacancies which occur throughout the year may be voted on at any other meeting of the Board.
10. The Placement Committee, in making nominations for appointment to a standing committee, shall have the authority to increase or decrease the size of a committee up to five (5) members.

11. The Administrative Committee of the Mission Board shall be comprised of twelve (12) Board members—the chairpersons of the six standing committees and six members-at-large. The members-at-large shall be elected by the Board after receiving nominations from the Placement Committee.
12. The chairperson of the Mission Board shall name the chairpersons of all standing committees and the chairperson of the Administrative Committee of the Board in consultation with the Executive Director-Treasurer. The chairperson of the Administrative Committee shall be chosen from the twelve (12) members.
13. The chairperson of the Mission Board shall be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Board. The Executive Director-Treasurer shall be an ex-officio (nonvoting) member of all committees of the Board.
14. The Board year begins with the convening of the first meeting of the Board following the annual meeting of the Kentucky Baptist Convention in November. The Board shall meet at least three times per year: in December, May and just prior to the annual Convention meeting.
15. Attendance Policy: All members of this Mission Board shall commit themselves to participation in the three Board meetings annually unless providentially hindered, giving notice of such absences to the secretary of the Mission Board, and removing themselves from the Board by resignation when circumstances prevent regular attendance of these meetings. Participation in these meetings is crucial to the effective working of this Mission Board for the fulfillment of the purposes of the convention body.

A Board member's absence without notice from two of the three Board meetings in a service year shall be verified by the secretary of the Board with the intent to ascertain the Board member's desire and ability to attend future Mission Board meetings for the remainder of the member's term.
16. The Board shall be responsible for advising the Convention on the total program of Kentucky Baptists except on matters assigned by the Convention to specific committees, and for directing the programs specifically assigned to it.
17. The doctrinal guideline for the Mission Board and its work shall be the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted and amended by the Southern Baptist Convention.
18. The rules contained in the most current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Mission Board in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Kentucky Baptist Convention.
19. The Mission Board shall make an annual report to the Kentucky Baptist Convention. Any recommendations to be presented to the Convention by the Mission Board shall be published in the Western Recorder thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting except in an emergency that may arise thereafter.
20. The following statements on size and duties of the six (6) standing committees and the Administrative Committee are a part of the organizational plan of the Board.
21. Electronic meetings of committees may be authorized by the chairman, provided that the electronic medium used gives opportunity for simultaneous aural communication among all participating members equivalent to those of meetings held in one room or area.

At times, the committee may desire to express its concern in such matters through the Mission Board's usual yearly budget planning process. At other times, the committee may wish to receive the information as a matter of prayerful and watchful concern or desire to share the matter with the Mission Board.
