SUMMER/SEMESTER

Multiply NYC develops and equips young adults into disciple-makers as they serve and strengthen MNYBA Churches.

Multiply NYC immerses young adults into a context where they gain practical knowledge of the realities of mission and leadership. Participants will spend their time learning to live life on mission under the guidance of local churches, pastors and church planters in New York City. While reinforcing gospel foundations, simple outreach practices, and biblical discipleship, the intention of the internship is to be an extension of the local church's efforts to reach their community and the city with the gospel.

Cost: $500/month for housing + $450 program cost
